

POLITICS MIXED IN TRENTON.

A WARM FIGHT ON RELIGIOUS LINES FOR THE MAYORALTY.

Trenton, March 24 (Special).—The fight over the mayoralty in this city has become the hottest ever waged here. It was thought three weeks ago that the prospects were good for the election of a Republican to the office, and Wellington Siskel, a young business man, was fixed upon as the best man to elect. It was discovered that Siskel's wife was a member of the Catholic Church, and immediately Dr. Isaac Cooper was put into the field by the A. P. A.'s. The Republican organization nominated Emory Yard, who is an active member of the Methodist Church. A few mornings ago when Trenton citizens awoke and got into the streets they found that some active Cooperites had been abroad and plastered the sidewalks with the injunction: "Vote for Dr. Cooper for Mayor." This created a sensation, but it was mild compared with the feeling the next morning, when it was discovered that somebody had painted under each placard the three words, "Protestant," "Methodist," and many residents found on their doorsteps and front porches the injunction in big letters, "Vote for Siskel." This was carrying the matter a step further, and the whole thing was done for advertising purposes, denouncing the methods employed by the political enthusiasts, and Mr. Siskel's friends, fearing the effect upon the interests of their candidate, hastened to learn that there had a movement on foot to nominate Yard by the combined force of the Protestant churches, and the battle is being fought on religious lines. So far the Democrats have succeeded in getting a majority, but they are endeavoring to win against the three-cornered fight, because no dependence can be placed upon party strength.

TO CELEBRATE COLONIST DAY.

Baltimore, March 24 (Special).—To-morrow is Colonist Day in Maryland, the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at the site of St. Mary's City from the Ark and the Dove, in 1634. The annual meeting and election of officers of the Society of Colonial Wars will be held in the evening at the Hotel Bennett. Fifteen members of the society are subscribers to a fund which has been disbursed in the purchase of four handsome silk flags, which will be presented to the society and are designed to commemorate the historical periods from 1667 to 1861. The flags are the "King's Colors," which bear the date of 1667; the "Colonial War Flag," which bears the date of 1861; the "Stars and Stripes," which bears the date of 1776; and the "Flag of Maryland," the present State flag, first used in 1861. They will be presented to the society by George Norbury Mackenzie, in an address giving a historical account of their significance and the times of their use, and they will be received on behalf of the society by Henry Howard. After the presentation a historical address will be delivered by the Rev. Henry Watkins Valentine, chaplain of the society.

Invitations to be present have been extended to the wives and daughters of the members, and to the officers of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

A number of members of Colonial societies in Philadelphia and New-York will attend.

On the morning of the 25th, the American flag which flies from the main tower of the society's headquarters will be supplemented on the other tower by the flag of the society. This is of red, white and blue with a white field, with the imperial George in the center emblem, and the motto "Qui transtulit sanguinem suum non debet dimicare nisi ad mortem." It is a copy of the nine colors which used it. This is the first of my unique American flag ever made by the British State Office, at the suggestion of Governor Andrews, for use by the colonists of New-England, who desired a flag in addition to that of the mother country, and was carried by them in the French and Indian War.

NEW YORK.

First Grand Combination Sale, Wednesday, March 27th, beginning at 10 A. M. sharp. The grandest and best display of style, quality, action, breeding and speed ever offered in New-York. Every sale. After months of preparation, I am enabled to offer to friends of the highest grade of horses, trotters, pacers, carriage horses, colts and saddle horses, from the cream of their respective classes. Trotters and pacers direct from the best breeding-shires in America. Coach horses, colts and matched pairs selected and conditioned by Andrews & McDonald, whose reputation for producing high-class horses of the above grades has no equal. Don't fail to bring the ladies and attend.

GRAND ELECTRIC LIGHT EXHIBITION

or Impromptu Horse Show, which takes place Tuesday evening, March 26th, at 8 P. M., in my new and spacious ring specially built for such occasions, to which the public is cordially invited.

All horses entered without reserve and will be sold to the highest bidder. Each entry will be shown in harness. Do you want grand road horses, or speed for racing purposes? I will be pleased to show you the cream of their respective breeds.

For full particulars of this sale, pedigree, description, records, etc., see Sunday's "New-York Herald," or send for catalogue, which is now ready.

The above sale in no way interferes with my regular Monday and Thursday's sale. I enter all. A buyer for a twenty-dollar horse receives the same attention as the purchaser for a thousand-dollar animal.
